

EARLY CAREERIST SEMINAR

Career Management and Search Strategies for Young Adults

Do you know a student or recent graduate who is ready to launch their career?

As a valued friend of Verity International, we are inviting the early careerists in your life to a complimentary seminar designed to help them prepare to conduct a proactive search and manage their careers.

Participants will leave this workshop with the knowledge and tools they need to:

- Assess and identify skills and strengths
- Understand how to define and develop a professional brand
- Clarify targets and set goals
- Create an effective resume and business correspondence
- Access opportunities through networking and the hidden job market
- Prepare for interviews and answer difficult questions
- Understand and manage the negotiation process

As an option, participants may choose one of the following:

- Online career assessment and written report: $300
- Online career assessment and written report PLUS one debrief session with a career coach: $500
