

Leading to Win!

CORPORATE BRIEFING SERIES

Join us as we celebrate our 25th anniversary and facilitate an intimate lively discussion with senior business leaders in the region.

Growing the Next Generation of Leaders

Elizabeth Stevenson will facilitate a discussion highlighting the various challenges organizations face in growing and developing the next generation of leaders. The recent economic crisis has changed the rules of the game with the pressure on managers being greater than ever to engage top talent. It is imperative that we have strategies in place as we emerge from the recession. We invite you to participate in a discussion of how we can equip ourselves to succeed.

'You Be the Judge' – A Case Study in Employment Law

Ronald S. Minken is nationally recognized as one of Canada's Top Employment Lawyers. He and his colleague Sara A. Kauder, will take you through an Employment Law case study. In a creative way, they will discuss some of the complexities, critical issues and pitfalls CEOs, Senior Human Resource and Business Leaders face today. You get to "be the judge" in identifying and analyzing actual issues and determining the appropriate remedies.
